Park Life yesterday were treated to the Street Dance team ABYSS,

The professional dancers who performed on stage in the afternoon then did a debut for the evening dancing in the Big Top was very warmly received. Steps were taught and moves were thrown. Thanks guys!

SELF DEFENCE Army Style in Free60

The Free60 kids learnt skills in Self Defence by Dave Aiton & Stewart Bell from the Defence International, a great afternoon showing the correct way to block an attack and other vital skills in self defence.

Singing in the rain

Not even the rain could dampen the spirits of these three in Park life, making a cake in a cup under the dryness of a rather large umbrella, Sophie, Joey and Kate. (Hope it tasted better than it looked Joey, Ed!)

LAMB MADRAS AT THE CURRY NIGHT

Last night it was the boy's turn for their night out and they tucked into lamb madras curry, popadoms and Samoa's. A great evening with entertainment, quiz and challenging stories from our very own Paul Weston & Andy McGee, Assistant head teacher in local secondary school, Dave Willets a reporter who works for the Sun and spoke to the lads about Afghanistan and George Kemp an Ex southern director of double glazing to name a few. The theme of the night was that you can be a Christian and still be a lad. The curry was chef Tony's own blend, go and find him today for the recipe!

A Roaring Success

The Lion's Den, in its second year, has attracted a full house almost each day. The Den is for children aged between 5 - 11 years with additional needs. It is a quieter venue, with high adult to child ratio, which aims to build children's self esteem and to integrate in Fizz or Buzz activities.

One parent wrote "I think this is great for special needs children"

VIP GIRLS PARTY ROCKS!!!

The girls enjoyed great games, food and being treated like a VIP. The girls aged 11-18 went into the free60 youth area via a red carpet, and handed with VIP passes. During the evening there was a cake decorating competition, limbo and the spectacular dance off between the hosts, Chris, Jack, Julian and Dan and ALL the girls... Needless to say the girls whipped the boys and they ended the evening with goody bags full of sweets and jewellery.
