Local artist Inspires at LitP

The Inspiration tent had a special visitor yesterday. Local artist Roy Harmer held a watercolour workshop which engaged a class of 15 women in techniques for painting in watercolour. Lorraine from Albany Park was one of the keen students; "It is great to be able to take part in something where I am learning, especially in such a lovely environment. With Inspiration I can leave my children in Buzz and know they are having fun too."

Roy is back on Mon 2nd Aug for another watercolour workshop for beginners – book at Registration

Il s'agit d'Annie!

*She's French and a little crazy
- but we love her!*

Annie Webb is a long standing Lark in the Park volunteer and on the team of Park Pastors which is available each afternoon for a chat, to answer any questions you may have and bring you cups of tea! Annie is great to sit and natter with – in English or French! Chat to Annie today!

Kids Rock Park Life!

Students from Clive's Rock School entertained the Park Life audience with a string of rock hits from yesteryear including Smoke On The Water and Sunshine of Your Love. An accomplished group, the students were well received by a discerning audience.

The Fuzz visits Fizz

In addition to their usual fun packed afternoon, the children in Fizz had a special visit yesterday from the community police who spent some to warn them of Stranger Danger.

Last night in the Big Top, several young people drank liquidised McDonald's Happy Meals and some stayed down as Lark in the Park's first Youth Night of 2010 went with a bang. Over 100 young people packed into the Big Top for a load of cool activities, time for wise words and to just hang out together.

A bar ran all night serving non-alcoholic cocktails and the girls were pampered with nail treatments. Prizes were given for the most basketball hoops and best penalty taker – massive inflatable slide and Gordon's Garden Games!

With the help of a video clip and some wise words from LitP Team Leader Paul Weston, we looked at what it means to be confident in yourself and not be pressured to follow the crowd. Roll on next week's Youth Night for more great times!

Mums get a break at Lark in the Park

Look at the camera next time Mary!

Friends Mary and Idel from St Paul's Cray enjoyed the Park Life entertainment while their children were in the Fizz and Buzz venues. "This is my second year here" said Mary "my children can't wait to come each day and I feel really comfortable with them in the clubs here because everything is so safe and so well run". Having everything on the same site means I don't have to find different activities each day to suit their ages, Fizz and Buzz do it for me!" Idel is enjoying herself too "This is my first time here, but it won't be my last! It's great that I don't have to think of something to do each day for the first couple of weeks of the holidays. And there's something for me too, the entertainment from the Park Life stage is so good, especially the young rock band – they had such talent!"
